

How do you use FAMILIES IN SOCIETY?

Staff Training and Professional Learning

"Because the articles on ethics were so comprehensive, they were perfect to utilize in our training sessions for over 200 social workers."

Caroline Carman, MSW, LISW

South Carolina Dept. of Health and Environmental Control (SCDHEC)

"The strengths-based assessment articles proved invaluable during training sessions for our mental health staff."

Dr. Angela Shields

Dept. of Mental Health

Los Angeles County, CA

"Your articles are a great resource for both presenters and attendees in our workshop 'Legal and Ethical Dilemmas in Social Work.'"

Tricia McCarthy

National Assoc. of Social Workers (NASW) Michigan Chapter

Program Development and Evaluation

"After reading the article on best practices for siblings and out-of-home placement, I was impressed and astounded on how real the information was and have made recommendations for all of my adoption supervisors to study it. The assessment tool found in the article has been an integral resource in our decision-making process for placing siblings together."

Mary Mitchell, LSW, MS.Ed

Cuyahoga County Dept. of Children and Family Services

"The article on foster parent decision-making has been very helpful in providing information and statistics on the effectiveness of recruitment and retention of foster parents."

Melissa Cole

Foster Family-Based Treatment Association

"The article on Diné (Navajo) natural helping and resilience is an excellent resource for our early childhood care and development initiative."

Jaime Apolonio

First Nations Partnership Programs

How do you use FIS? Send us your examples and ideas!

FAMILIES IN SOCIETY

info@familiesinsociety.org | www.familiesinsociety.org

Families in Society is published by the Alliance for Children and Families, a national member association of child- and family-serving organizations. www.alliance1.org